FOREWORD

The staff which has compiled and edited the photographic and written material contained in this Bulldog hopes that it has done its work in a manner that will reflect credit upon the High School. It hopes that this year book will serve as an important and effective link in keeping the High School close to those who have passed through its portals on their way to the performance of deeds of service and achievements in various lines of endeavor, that it will be retained in the future as a record of the past, and that it may prove interesting and instructive to those who are contemplating a course of study at Lindenhurst High School.

TO THE FACULTY

who have memorably guided and directed our four years of work and play, who have been ever patient, and who have given us a new understanding of life, we dedicate this book.

ADMINISTRATION

With this issue of The Bulldog we would like to express our gratitude to the Board of Education for the splendid manner in which they have cooperated in helping us solve our many problems. We wish to commend them for the splendid teachers they have chosen to guide us through four years of high school life. It is with respect and admiration that we, as a class, take this opportunity to say "Thank you", to the members of the Board.

EDWARD W. BOWER, PH.D.

Supervising Principal

A friend for four years never to be forgotten.

ALFRED T. ANDERSON, B.S.

Faculty Adviser

A patient and most understanding man.

SENIORS

CLASS OF 1938

William Deller .....	President
Dorothea Rayser .....	Vice President
Agnes Taibl .....	Secretary
Ruth Beck .....	Treasurer

Organized under the supervision of Mr. Robert Little, the class of '38 held its traditional junior prom, a kiddie kar polo match and a cake sale, all of which proved to be very successful enterprises.

This year the class chose Mr. Alfred Anderson as adviser. To raise funds for the yearbook, Christmas cards were sold, and permission was granted by the Board of Education to sell candy in school.

As their first social affair the seniors held a card party in the fall, followed by a Christmas party where merry couples danced around a tin-seled tree. May 6, masqued figures danced to the strains of Voltaire's orchestra in a nautical scene.

The junior gift to the seniors was a beach party at Gilgo on June 14. The final social event was a ball held June 30 for seniors and invited guests only.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, being of sound mind, and possessing our faculties, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

Our golden gift of silence, our happy faces, our intellectual inclination, by which we have gained the admiration of our teachers, classmates, and friends, we leave to our heirs and theirs forever.

To Martin Wolkoff, Bill Deller's basketball form.

To Don Robinson, Flo Rollender's book reviews.

To Betty Henry, Elizabeth Nehlsen's nimble typing fingers.

To Theresa Zumpol, Fritz Kuehnel's flirtatious manner.

To Ralph Wicks, Dick Whalen's spirit of fun.

To Agnes McKenna, Victor Lukken's freckles.

To Gertrude May, Charles Pebler's secretiveness.

To Rosemary Brooks, Agnes Taibl's athletic achievements.

To Philip Hosey, Marion Davis' pugnacious spirit.

To Eleanor Walters, Jane Voelker's mastery of the piano.

To Walter Mathison, Frank Vagnoni's stature.

To the Sophomore Class, James Jonassen's perseverance.

To Irene Schmidt, Evelyn Furrer's quietness.

To Charlotte Erlenwein, Dot Rayser's curly locks.

To Margaret Nagengast, George Muller's scholastic record.

To Gilbert Chichester, Jim Bonniwell's managership.

To Joan Orlando, Adeline Leipold's curiosity.

To Irwin Robinson, Francis Laurita's brush and palette.

To Virginia Seamens, Nudy Mentz's vivaciousness.
To Daniel Harrington, Lois Wicks' love of music.
To Lou Poveromo, William Bonn's shyness.
To Doris Dinger, Melvin Robertson's "gift of gab".
To Edith Gundersen, Phil Brezovsky's domineering character.
To Charles Hohlbein, Ruth Beck's dancing feet.
To Edna Hrbek, George Bopp's robustness.
To Harold Haudenschild, Deeva Shteir's oratorical ability.
To Lucille Rhodes, Marguerite Dunne's culinary art.
To Ed Schlosser, Gene Brezovsky's superiority complex.
To Pauline Blum, Anita McCullough's sophisticated air.
To anyone who wants it, Isabel Biasini's driving.
To Gerard Ford, Mollie Klapper's small feet.
To the Freshman Class, Walter Aardsma's reliability.
To Jennie Bertolli, Christina Hess' talented hockey stick.
To Irmgard Benkert, Virginia Booth's coyness.
To Henry Sweeters, Elonora Boehm's height.
To Henry Mathison, Agnes Maier's self-consciousness.
To Mary Aardsma, Virginia Jaeger's broad shoulders.
To the Junior Class, James Donlin's obliging disposition.

Signed, sealed, and witnessed by the entire Class of '38.

CLASS PROPHECY

Scene: United States Air-base at Hawaii, home of Admiral Melvin Robertson.

Time: 9:00 A. M.

Year: 1948.

Mrs. Robertson (former Florence Rollender) is seated at the breakfast table looking over the mail. Melvin enters.

"Good morning, dear. How are you this lovely day?"

"Not well at all, thanks to you. My health is failing."

"Well, why not go back to the States for a rest?"

"And leave you to run around with all the pretty girls? Not a chance, my dear. Don't tell me you haven't any interests because I saw you reading Ruth Beck's gossip column in the "Times" where she says that Lucille LeLong, formerly known as Friede Judith Kuehnel, Hollywood's A-1 glamour girl, is visiting the island."

"Not to change the subject, but is there anything on the radio?"

"Oh, I almost forgot! Jimmy Donlin is on at 9:15 with his Comments of the Day. Yesterday he announced that George Muller has been acclaimed the "home-run king".

"Not George! More power to him."

"Did you hear the report of the Indianapolis Auto Races yesterday? Well, Frank Vagnoni won the cup. Remember the corners he used to take on two wheels? May I have the paper please?"

"I want to read Francis Laurita's comic strip. It's a scream. Did you see this? Charlie Pebler has just been made President of the Chase National Bank and selected Agnes Maier as his secretary."

"I can read, sweet. Do you mind letting me have the society column. Hmm—Nudy Mentz was married yesterday for the third time by the Rev. Walter Aardsma. Two of William Bonn's night club entertainers Virginia Booth, dancer, and Lois Wicks, singer, were bridesmaids. Bill Deller, President of the Deller Publishing Company was there and I heard he just published Agnes Taibl's book on the "Newest Principles in Chemistry", which is being used in universities all over the world. Mollie Klapper just completed her leaflet "How to Grow Tall in Ten Easy Lessons; Success Guaranteed". Elonora Boehm, Leader of the Women's Temperance League of America was a guest too."

"I see by the paper that Elizabeth Nehlsen is teaching commercial subjects at Harvard and Yale, and James Bonniwell has taken over the Ford plant in Detroit. Imagine, Anita McCullough is humor editor of the New York Times."

"Mel, I had a letter from Marguerite Dunne and in the last election she was made Speaker of the House in the U. S. Congress. She says that Adeline Leipold and Christina Hess are representatives from New York. I'll bet you didn't know that Isabel Biasini is Secretary of Labor."

"Here's something you missed, Flo. Your friend Deeva Shteir is now a Supreme Court Justice. It certainly pays to keep up with your old friends. Who'd ever believe Philip Brezovsky would be Governor of New York State. I wonder what he thinks of Eugene's new play "The Great Lover."

"Do you know whom I saw last week?"

"Am I supposed to know?"

"You would if you paid attention to me instead of the obituary column."

"Gosh, I have to have some enjoyment, don't I?"

"Well, it was Dorothea Rayser. She has been voted New York's most popular model. She said Jane Voelker just finished a symphony while playing with Stowkowski's orchestra. At a tea one afternoon, she met Virginia Jaeger, head of the athletic department at Vassar. There's the phone. I'll answer it. Hello—yes, this is Florence, speaking. Oh, Evelyn Furrer. How have you been? I haven't heard from you since graduation. What? You're married to Victor Lukken, President of the United States Steel Corporation. Wonderful . . . Did you hear about George Bopp and Marion Davis? They wrestled at Madison Square Garden the other night. Poor George has a fractured shoulder."

"Ask her what happened to Dick Whalen, Flo."

"Yes, Evelyn, what have you heard from Dick Whalen? Is that so? I can hardly believe it. How about having dinner with us next Thursday? Fine, I'll call you Wednesday to make sure. Good-bye."

"Mel, Jimmy Jonassen bought the chain of Bohack grocery stores and Dick had his musical horn for his ice-cream truck patented. It plays six tunes. Leave it to Dick."

"Do you know Flo, I've been thinking the class of '38 gave a great deal to the world. Certainly a credit to our school. By golly, look at the time. I'll have to hop along. Goodbye, dear."

"Goodbye, darling, and don't forget your rubbers. It looks like rain."

CLASSES

CLASS OF 1939

Joan Orlando .....	President
Walter Mathison .....	Vice President
Betty Henry .....	Secretary
Bella Smith .....	Treasurer

In their Freshman year, the present Junior Class set the precedent of electing Mr. Hopkins class adviser for four years. To assist Mr. Hopkins, this year the Juniors elected Miss McKeown co-adviser.

Last year they ran a magazine sale, turkey raffle and, as final enterprise, a May Dance was held in the gym. The Class also originated, in 1936, a plan for an individual student saving account, the object of which was to defray graduation expenses.

In keeping with its ambitious program, the Class sponsored another magazine drive in the fall of this year. A profit of $60 was realized.

The traditional Junior Prom was held in the gym March 18. The gym, under the direction of the Misses McKeown and Fuller, was elaborately decorated with multi-colored streamers. Excellent music was furnished by Eddie Richter and his orchestra.

CLASS OF 1940

Anthony Lazio .....	President
Angelo Babbino .....	Vice President
Anna Kehm .....	Secretary
Calvin Lyons .....	Treasurer

Black faces . . . Patched over-alls . . . Gingham dresses covering big, chocolate-colored Mammies . . . Hot singin' . . . Sweet singin' . . . Spirituals . . . Funny jokes . . . Subtle jokes . . . Song and Dance men. Such was the picture on the night of April 16, 1937 when the Class of 1940 presented their first major function as Freshmen. The minstrel was such a huge success that it was decided to make it the annual affair of the Class.

At present, the Class is working, under the direction of Misses Robinson and Fuller, the class advisers, with the cooperation of Mr. Michel, on the plans for their 1938 minstrel which promises to be bigger and better than ever. These plans have absorbed so much of the Class's time that they have not as yet contemplated running another affair this semester.

CLASS OF 1941

Virginia Rawlings .....	President
Helen Becker .....	Vice President
Francis Moles .....	Treasurer
Mildred Barasch .....	Secretary

When organizing in September 1937, the freshmen chose Miss Louise Samsel and Mr. Arthur Rohr as their faculty advisers.

The class stands out in school affairs with the highest scholastic rating. It is also the largest freshman class in the history of Lindenhurst High School.

A Chinese exhibition, which was the only affair sponsored by the class during the year, turned over to the newly formed General Organization the highest sum of money received from any social function this year, approximately thirty dollars.

The freshmen would like, through the medium of the high school annual, to express their thanks to those who helped to make their exhibition a huge success.

ORGANIZATIONS

LINDENHURST BAND

The Lindenhurst High School Band, organized in 1936 by Mr. Erwin Tropp, consists of thirty-seven students who are interested in furthering their knowledge of music.

As a result of the colorful green and white uniforms which were obtained this fall, much attention has been focused upon the band and a new enthusiasm seems evident among the students. The band made its initial appearance in uniform at the opening basketball game with Northport last fall.

The band made a wonderful appearance in the annual Memorial Day celebration, and was heartily applauded by the spectators; a tribute, no doubt, to their rapid progress in the field of music.

DEBATING CLUB

Under the supervision of Mr. Michel, this year's debating club was organized with only three veteran debaters; Deeva Shteir, Anita McCullough, and Marguerite Dunne. Promising material was shown for next year's team in the new members, Eleanor Heling, Virginia Rawlings, George Kriegbaum, Daniel Harrington, George Heaslip, James Jonassen, and Max Halebsky.

"Resolved: The several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation," was the topic debated upon. Lindenhurst had a full schedule with many Long Island schools and Peekskill High School. Although the team did not gain many victories, much experience was acquired by the new members.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The girls' glee club has steadily climbed up the ladder of success with Marie Foster as President, Jennie Bertolli, Vice President, and Lois Wicks, Secretary.

The club has attended concerts, assemblies, and festivals, cooperating with the Lindenhurst High School Band.

Under the leadership of Mr. Erwin Tropp, we hope for the continued success of this ambitious group.

SAFETY PATROL

Mr. F. Pierce ..... Faculty Adviser

Henry Sweeters ..... Captain

Organized in 1927 by Mr. Pierce, the Safety Patrol has become recognized as a capable and efficient unit of the school community. The aim of the Patrol is to promote safety in the immediate vicinity of the school at all times, and, with the aid of the local police, has developed into a competent club.

An assembly program consisting of various speakers was provided to further impress the students with the importance of safety.

CINEMA CLUB

The Cinema Club originated in 1935 under the direction of Miss L. Samsel to promote general interest in better types of moving pictures and to teach the members to discriminate between worthwhile productions and otherwise.

In September 1937, the club chose Joan Orlando, president; Mary Webster, vice president; Edith Gunderson, secretary; and Agnes Torns, treasurer to lead its destinies during the year.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

Mr. Fay Pierce ..... Faculty Adviser

James Bonniwell ..... President

Since the organization of the Astronomy Club in 1935, the membership has constantly increased with eager young astronomers, interested in furthering their knowledge of the infinite world above.

Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Fay Pierce, the club has constructed a telescope which will allow the astronomers to gaze at the celestial beauty of the heavens. The weekly lectures of Mr. Pierce have also aided in increasing the astronomical knowledge of every member of this organization.

This year the club plans to build a larger and more powerful telescope.

THE LINDEN ARCHERS

Evelyn Mentz ..... President
James Donlin ..... Vice President
Mr. Andersen and Miss Samsel ..... Advisers

The Linden Archers was organized in the Lindenhurst High School, September 1932, by Jesse Chichester; for the purpose of teaching students good sportsmanship and fair play.

The equipment used by the club is made by the members. The club has produced several champions, notably Evelyn Mentz, L. I. woman champion and Bella Smith, L. I. girl champion.

CAMERA CLUB

Mr. Pierce ..... Faculty Adviser
Harry Bourdo ..... President

The Camera Club was originated in 1935 under the supervision of Mr. Pierce. The club has enlivened the interests of the students in photography, especially since the board appropriated the necessary funds to furnish an enlarger, new chemicals and other photographic supplies used in the up-to-date dark room and well equipped laboratory.

In a contest sponsored by the club this year, prizes were awarded for the best portrait, the most varied collection, the best scenic view and the most unusual photograph.

COSTUME CLUB

Miss Fuller ..... Adviser
Agnes Taibl ..... President

The Costume Club, organized September 1936, is composed of those girls interested in learning everything possible about the current trend of fashion. The club has accomplished much under the able direction of Miss Fuller.

Each year the club sponsors fashion shows, with the members modeling "what the well-dressed girl will wear". Its most recent show, held May 20, 1938, proved to be more successful than those in the past.

BETA GAMMA

Miss Babock ..... Faculty Adviser

Isabel Biasini ..... President

The Beta Gamma honorary commercial society was formed in 1935 for the purpose of encouraging higher scholastic averages among the students of the commercial department. The membership is limited to ten students who must have an average of 85% or better. The members are received after a public initiation.

The members, selected from the junior and senior classes for both scholastic achievements and participation in extra-curricular activities, include: Ruth Beck, William Bonn, Jerome Eaton, Evelyn Furrer, Christina Hess, Agnes Maier, Elizabeth Nehlsen, vice president, Dorothea Rayer, treasurer and William Deller, secretary.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Through the combined efforts of the Misses Clara Samsel, Norine Clark, Helen Beebee, Bertha Marsh, and the Messrs. Charles Fisher and Erwin Tropp, the Lindenhurst High School student body has greatly enjoyed many fine assembly programs.

The committee offered various types of educational and musical entertainment and the students have eagerly anticipated every assembly. We hope that the committee will continue to do its fine work for the benefit of underclassmen.

DELTA SIGMA

Miss Bowers, Mr. Fisher ..... Advisers

Melvin Robertson ..... President

The Delta Sigma was organized in September 1936 as an honorary society for seniors enrolled in the college entrance course.

This year the club has been busy carrying on the work of last year's group, that is, compiling an extensive and detailed history of Lindenhurst. During the course of the semester, the members went to New York and saw "Whiteoaks", a current Broadway production. Another of their accomplishments was a one-act comedy, "The Red Lamp" which was presented in assembly.

THE MASQUETEERS

Miss N. Clark ..... Adviser

Agnes Taibl ..... President

With the intent to teach the principles of acting and stagecraft to those interested in these activities, the Masqueteers was formed in September 1933 by Miss Norine Clark.

As its major production this year, the club presented "Jane Eyre". In addition, "Cabbages", a one-act comedy was selected as an assembly program.

With funds accumulated since its organization, the club presented the school with equipment for the dressing room.

JANE EYRE

The first costume play attempted by the Masqueteers was "Jane Eyre", a play adapted from the novel by C. Bronte.

After much deliberation, Friede Kuehnel and Harold Haudenschild were given the leading roles. The supporting cast consisted of: F. Rollender, H. Schmidt, B. Nottveit, R. Beck, M. Klapper, A. Taibl; J. Walz, D. Rayser, A. McKenna, V. Jaeger, J. Donlin, M. Robertson, E. Brezovsky, and P. Brezovsky.

THE BROADCAST

The Misses Clark, Downey, Babcock ..... Advisers

Deeva Shteir ..... Editor

This year the Broadcast was published under the able editorship of Deeva Shteir, who succeeded John Brion.

March 11, Miss Clark accompanied two representatives of the paper to the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference. Here the paper placed fourth in its class. A Critic at the conference rendered helpful criticism about the makeup of the paper resulting in the enlargement of the next issue.

The Broadcast was incorporated under the G. O. and every member received his monthly issue free.

FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1937 football team of Lindenhurst High School was the lightest one L. H. S. has put on the field to date. The majority of the men were first year men, the only veterans being Phil Poldino, David Howells, George Bopp, Don Robinson, Bob Kirstein, and Bob Kienzle. Only two men, Bopp and Kirstein will not be back next year and Lindy looks forward to a good season in 1938.

After losing to Amityville, Huntington, Manhasset, and Glen Cove, Lindenhurst came back in the final game of the year to a victory over Sayville with a score of 20-6.

Philip Poldino was elected captain of the 1938 "eleven" and everyone is anxiously awaiting a victorious season to begin.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Mr. Hopkins ..... Coach
 Mr. Rohr ..... Coach
 James Bonniwell ..... Manager
 Philip Poldino ..... Captain

Upon the break-up of the Section 4 league the Lindy "5" joined up with Section 1. Meeting some pretty stiff competition in Bay Shore, Port Jefferson and Sayville, Lindy managed to place third in the final standings after beating Babylon, Islip, Amityville, Northport, Huntington and Patchogue.

Philip Poldino was captain for the 37-38 season and his team mates were William Deller, Charles Pebler, Charles Graffagnino and Louis Poveromo.

Louis Poveromo was chosen to captain the 38-39 team and George Kreigbaum was appointed the squad's manager. Because the team is only losing two members through graduation, Coach Hopkins believes that our chances of placing first in the league next year are very favorable.

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Under the able and efficient direction and help of Miss O'Shea, the hockey team has completed a second non-defeated season.

At the beginning of the season, Agnes Taibl, whose athletic ability was shown in the ensuing games, was elected captain of the team and Adeline Leipold and Annette Amplo were elected managers.

The team will lose eight of its players through graduation but these places will be filled by the second team players, who hope to be just as successful as their predecessors and keep up the good record for Lindenhurst High.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

The girls' basketball team had a very successful season this year. The sextet won ten out of eleven games played. The team played Bay Shore, Winnwood, Islip, Northport, St. Agnes Academy, Rockville Center, and Hofstra College. The team was defeated by Rockville Center.

Early in the season, the team elected Marion Davis captain; Lois Wicks manager and Betty Henry assistant manger.

The team owes most of its success to the able assistance and coaching of Miss O'Shea. The spirit of cooperation between the six members helped to make their speedy offensive and defensive effective and was a commendable asset toward victory of Lindenhurst.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

Amityville, Babylon, Islip, East Islip, Bay Shore, and Seaford compiled the Girls' Baseball schedule for the 1937 season. Under the coaching of Miss M. O'Shea, the team came through the season with no defeats to mar a perfect record.

Frieda Boeckh, pitcher, and Evelyn Furrer, catcher, held highest batting averages. The supporting line-up was as follows: Jewell Younge, first base; Lois Wicks, second base; June Beard, third base; Marion Davis, short stop; Virginia Jaeger, Christina Hess, and Anna Smith, fielders.

Undoubtedly the most interesting game was with Farmingdale when, after seven innings of a scoreless tie, the Lindy nine "bingled" out the winning run.

GIRLS' INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Sixty-six girls took part in the Intramural Basketball tournament this year. There nine teams entered. Three freshmen, two sophomore, three junior, and one senior team provided keen competition for the victorious Junior aggregation which was composed as follows: Captain Jennie Bertolli, center forward; Rosemary Brooks, left forward; Betty Henry, right forward; Josephine Walz, center guard; Doris Dinger, left guard; Rose Zimmerman, right guard.

The champions played the Seniors in the finals, beating them by six points. The line-up of the Senior team was Capt. Deeva Shteir, Lois Wicks, Virginia Jaeger, Florence Rollender, Friede Kuehnel, Agnes Maier, and Evelyn Mentz.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

There were seven competing teams of intramural volley ball each participating in six games.

At the close of the tournaments, the "Setelehtas" secured the winning position.

The "Setelehtas" consisted of Capt. Jennie Bertolli, Rose Zimmerman, Josephine Walz, Babette Fetner, Madeline Heling, Grace Deveaux, Norma Spencer, Violet Spencer.

BOYS' ARCHERY

Under the competent leadership of Mr. Jesse Chichester the boys' archery team was successfully organized in the Fall of 1932. Since that time the team has met with outstanding victories on the archery range.

The friends and students of Lindenhurst High School may indeed be proud of the standing which this organization has assumed on Long Island and may be confident that the team will carry on in the traditional spirit of the institution.

This year the team has had meets with Amityville and Lynbrook and is looking forward to a strenuous schedule in the Fall of 1938.

CHEERING SQUAD

Miss McKeown, Mr. Hopkins ..... Coaches
Florence Rollender ..... Captain

This year's cheering squad was selected after a series of eliminations held in October. Individual faculty members were asked to choose from approximately 30 contestants.

The members of the squad, the largest in the school's history, were Florence Rollender, Anita McCullough, Dorothy Walz, Josephine Walz, Stella Jancovich, Melvin Robertson, Angelo Babbino, Francis Laurita and Henry Mathison. The members of the squad succeeded in originating new cheers and motions which were received enthusiastically by the student body.

GIRLS' ARCHERY

In coherence with the undefeatable spirit of Lindy teams, the girl's archery members chalked up a satisfactory record by emerging victorious at the two meets with Baldwin and the two with Amityville.

Those comprising the team are Babette Fetner, Anna Kehm, Bella Smith, Betty Henry, and Evelyn Mentz, who is high scorer with an average of 405.4 points per meet.

INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL

After sweeping away everything before them in the early phases of the volleyball tournament, the Granites seemed headed for the championship. The Indians, however, had different ideas and after a long hard, sustained drive they managed to nose out the Granites for the title.

The Indians consisted of George Muller, Paul Newman, Chester McDermot, Raymond Rugamer, Henry Mathison, Edward Schlosser and Philip Schnieder.

BOYS' BASEBALL

At the beginning of the year, Section 4 was abolished and Lindenhurst was forced to join Section 1. They retained possession of the baseball banner won in the last year of Section 4 competition. Coach Hopkins, however, is sure that the 1938 team will give a good account of itself against the stiffer competition found in Section 1. The team was under the managership of Francis Laurita and Gilbert Chichester and captained by Irving Saffrin. The team consisted of Phil Poldino, David Howells, George Muller, Edward Whitman, William Deller, Glenn Davis, Albert Mead, Irving Saffrin and Arthur Enz.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

Keen competition was shown this year in the boys' interclass basketball duel. After beating out the Juniors in a close hard fought game, the Senior boys went on to swamp the Sophomores who had previously come out on the long end of a close score in a game against the Frosh, and to win, for the second year in a row, the interclass basketball banner.

The team consisted of Francis Laurita, Eugene Brezovsky, George Muller, Melvin Robertson, Frank Vagnoni, and James Donlin.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Joseph Pinter ..... President
Dorothy Gallagher ..... Vice President
Mary Pinter ..... Corresponding Secretary
Angelina Roeper ..... Recording Secretary
Jay I. Boxer ..... Treasurer

After ten years of inactivity, the Lindenhurst High School Alumni Association was reorganized in 1937. In an effort to solicit more members for the organization, the Alumni published the "Alumni News Letter" which included the aims and the activities of the association. It was sent to all graduates of the high school whether or not they were members. This year they are planning to publish an Alumni Year Book.

On November 4, 1937 they introduced Recreation Night for Alumni members. An admission fee was charged ($1) which was used to defray the expenses of keeping the school open in the evening. It continued through the winter until February 4 when it was discontinued.

In order to raise funds for the organization, the Alumni sponsored a number of basketball games in which outstanding professional teams participated. The games which were most successful were those in which the renowned House of David team played.

At present all Alumni activity is centered on making the Alumni-Senior Banquet a success. It will be held on July 2, 1938 and is to be given in honor of the Class of 1938 at Narragansett Inn, Lindenhurst, New York.
