Foreword

We the class of 1953, the "Typical Teenagers," in reaching the end of our high school career hope that we have included all of our history of the past four years.

Upon graduation, may we follow the teachings of our Alma Mater and be a credit to Lindenhurst High School.

We acquired the idea for our theme from the graduates themselves. "Typical Teenagers" as they are, they hope to give a fine example to the classes following them.

The staff feels that these "Typical Teenagers" will some day, in the future, become "Typical American Men and Women." Alumni of Lindenhurst High School.

Dedication

MISS MARY BRETON

We, the typical teenagers of 1953 wish to dedicate our Year-book to Miss Mary G. Breton, in recognition for all the time and effort which you spent for the betterment of our Senior class.

May you help and inspire other classes in the future, for you will always be remembered by "The Typical Teenagers" as our "Typical Inspirer."

Dedication

MR. JOSEPH MARCINO

We, the typical teenagers of 1953 wish to dedicate our Year-book to Mr. Joseph Marcino, in recognition for all the time and effort which you spent for the betterment of our Senior class.

STUDENT FACULTY ORGANIZATION

This organization is the beginning of an experiment started last year by the old G. O. Under this new setup the officers are selected by the students themselves in regular vote. The candidates are chosen by partitions, the Partition for President must originate in a senior homeroom likewise with the Vice President. The partition for Treasurer must originate in a Junior homeroom and the partition for Secretary must originate in a sophomore homeroom.

The Purpose of this organization is to give the students of Lindenhurst High School more freedom in the governing of their school. This organization is directed under the capable guidance of Mr. Michel and Mrs. Easton.

The officers elected this year were President, Robert Wright; Vice President, Laurel Gregory; Treasurer, Andrew Ansalmo; Secretary, Florence Arabian.

This organization is also responsible for the many assemblies which the students enjoy, and for the picking of the student of the Month.

LIBRARY CLUB

With Miss Hatch as librarian and Council Director, the Lindenhurst High School Library Council manages to keep our library up to date in the best of books. Working during their study periods, the council members do everything from typing to filing.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

With Mrs. Smith as a capable director of this active group the club belongs to the "Future Homemakers of America." Learning how to prepare for their future home the members sew and cook. They meet once a week and discuss the problems that a housewife should meet in her everyday life.

BAND

An assembly program just wouldn't be complete without having the band play for us. Under the able direction of Mr. John Mungo, the band has become a very important function in L. H. S. by playing at all football games. This organization also helped make our Senior play a great success. They played between the acts of the play, and should be commended for the excellent job they did.

MR. MUNGO

TWIRLERS CLUB

CHORUS

Our High School Chorus under the capable direction of Mrs. Elsie Shulman has performed diligently in many numerous and enjoyable concerts. The Chorus is comprised of boys and girls who meet every fourth period in the auditorium. The chorus also performed at Thanksgiving and Christmas. George Callahan was elected President.

HONOR SOCIETY FALL 1952

HONOR SOCIETY SPRING 1953

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society of Lindenhurst High School has more than lived up to the standards set up by the National Honor Society, under the capable leadership of its advisors and officers. The advisors are Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood and Mr. Lawrence C. Lobaugh. The officers are President, Eugene McGrellis, Vice President, Marilyn Benstock, Secretary, Marilyn Weidner and Treasurer, Herman Osswald. The Board of Admissions include Edmund Ortler and Ann Weierter plus the four officers.

On December 6, in order to raise funds, a series of Christmas cartoons were shown at the High School for the elementary students of Lindenhurst.

After Christmas vacation the board of Admissions began selecting Juniors and Seniors to enter the Honor Society, on the basis of scholastic standing, leadership, character and service. The ten students chosen were: Andrew Anselmo, Rita Farranto, Carol Leonard, Clinton Lunt, Marilyn Mahler, Paul Nagy, Raymond Ortler, Claudette Pedrini, Arnold Schotsky, and Vivian Weissflog. Other members include Laurel Gregory and Hans Morganstern.

One of the privileges granted to members of the Honor Society is the use of the Honor Society Room. Instead of going to study hall, all members are allowed to go into the club room without the supervision of an advisor or a teacher. This is one evidence of the trust put in a member of the society.

One of the responsibilities of the Honor Society is the running of the Lost and Found Department. Each member spends a period a day in charge of the Lost and Found.

BROADCAST STAFF

ED. GERMANN — Editor

Under the supervision of Mr. Langford and Mr. Cardinal, the Broadcast was Lindenhurst's outstanding monthly publication with such enthusiastic journalists as Ed Germann, Harriet Brush, Evie White, Anna Genelli, Donald Clark, Lois Luken, and Anne Swanson. Each issue was jammed packed with news, fashions, jokes, exchange abouts, sports, nickel coke, and of course confidentially yours added much to its reading pleasure.

VARSITY CLUB

Under the supervision of Coach Marcino the club was responsible for raising money for maintenance of the teams. Only lettermen are initiated every fall. Officers of this club are David Kelskey, President; George Price, Vice President; John Shiffert, Treasurer; Ed Germann, Secretary.

LEADERS CLUB

Under the direction of Mrs. Sklar, the girls assisted in conduction of gym classes and teaching of techniques. To become a member of the Leaders Club, a girl must participate in 4 sports a year and have 125 points, show sportsmanlike attitude, and be voted on favorably by all members of the club. The officers are Lois Luken, President; Bea Lord, Vice President; Jean Saverese, Secretary; and Fran Rhodes, Treasurer.

SERVICE CLUB

With such an able leader as Mr. Irving Saffrin, the Service Club could always be seen ready and willing to help. Among the services rendered by these faithful members were the showing of movies at Parent-Teachers meetings, in classrooms, and during assemblies, and the lighting and setting of the stage for the Senior play, "Henrietta the Eighth." No matter what it was, the Service Club could be counted on to do the job quickly and efficiently.

RAILROAD CLUB

This is a new club which has just started in Lindenhurst High, under the direction of Mr. Langford. Its President is Paul Adler. These boys make railroading their hobby. They set up and build model railroads.

LATIN CLUB

This club is made up of the students of the Latin classes, under the direction of Mr. Langford. They took one trip to Farmingdale Agricultural School for the Fall Exhibit.

DRAMATICS CLUB

This organization is made up of pupils that participated in Dramatics and Radio Speech Classes. These people learn the background and fundamentals of the stage, such as lighting, settings, makeup, and problems of production. This club is headed by Miss Wright our Dramatics Teacher. The President is Dolores Hendrickson.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

The Bulldog cagers had a very good season in '53 ending up with a record of 11-7 for the regular season. In the beginning stages of the season, the league championship prospects looked dim, but the high-spirited Bulldogs led on by coach Ed Kienle, won their way to first place honors shared by three other teams. They won their last three games by beating Babylon 75-52, Huntington (the greatly favored team) 77-54 and Bay Shore 49-40. Concluding the season with these games, Lindy then entered the climax game against Port Jeff in the A-1 playoff.

Lindy, though winning in spirit, determination and drive but suffering a below-average night, came out on the short end of a very close 50-46 decision.

During the season, Lindy broke three team records and an individual high-scoring record by Bill Schneider who also made the Suffolk All Scholastic Team with Art Hibbert getting honorable mention. Starters were usually Schneider, Lorelli, Hibbert, Price, Fraumeni or Roggie. Rounding out the team were MacDonald, Sheehan, Gazinski and Kelskey. The team should be commended on an outstanding season which saw probably one of the best basketball squads in Lindy's history.

J.V. BASKETBALL TEAM

Although not completing a very successful season, these boys played their best throughout and lost a few very close ones. Under coach La Slove, the J. V. fought the opposing teams with all they had and showed much determination and team spirit. We hope and believe that they will have a much better season next year with quite a few prospects for the Varsity team.

BASKETBALL

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This snappy squad of girls could always be seen sparking our teams in Football and Basketball. During Football season no matter how cold the weather was you could always hear the girls cheering for the team's victory.

The cheerleaders' Faculty advisor was Miss Hoffman, who had the job of chaperoning the girls to the football and basketball games. Also she helped the girls with their new cheers.

The squad consisted of Joyce Torterella, Rita Farranto, Evelyn White, Lois Luken, Helen Hemendinger, Lorraine Gelke, Carol Mergler, and Joan Bier.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS

This year a completely new squad of girls was chosen. These peppy girls, the future varsity cheerleaders, will surely do their best to cheer future Lindenhurst teams to victory.

The squad consisted of Norma Harris, Nancy Harder, Pat Sherral, Niome Topot, Norma Johnson, and Mary Jane Wrieth.

VOLLEYBALL HONOR TEAM

After all the hockey sticks and shin guards were put away, out came the volleyballs and nets.

Those girls who participated in intramurals and class teams were eligible for Honor Team tryouts. Volleyball Sportsday was held at Amityville High School.

The girls who made the Honor Team were: Evelyn White, Joan Milligan, Cathy Kurdt, Lois Luken, Bea Lord, Anne Swanson, Carol Benkert, Maureen Bak, Arletta Marold, Jean Savarese, Diane Rutherig, and Harriet Brush. Lois Luken was captain.

Farmingdale	36	Lindy	30
Levittown	19	Lindy	29
Amityville	36	Lindy	25
Mempham	26	Lindy	10

BASKETBALL HONOR TEAM

The girls' basketball season began with much enthusiasm from all its potential players. Because of Sport Night being so close, the girls didn't have many practices. After the class teams were chosen these girls were eligible for Honor Team tryouts. Although the Honor Team didn't make out so well, they certainly tried their best.

The outstanding girls to represent "Lindy" in the Basketball Sportsday held at Farmingdale on February 28 were:

Forwards — Maureen Bak, Bobbie Blankenhorn, Carol Benkert, Arletta Marold, Florence Arabian, Diane Rutherig.

Guards — Evelyn White, Cathy Kurdt, Joan Milligan, Anne Swanson, Vivian Weissflog, Palma DePietro.

The captain was Bobbie Blankenhorn.

Bethpage	14	Lindy	11
Amityville	8	Lindy	7
Levittown	8	Lindy	3

HOCKEY HONOR TEAM

With Hockey as the opening sport of the year, every girl on the four class teams had their eyes on those green and white honor team uniforms and jackets. They were to be worn by the girls chosen to represent "Lindy" in the Hockey Sportsday held at Salisbury Park, Hempstead. Although the team did not come out on top they did their best to use the techniques taught to them by their capable "coach", Mrs. Sklar.

The outcome of the day was two losses of 1-0 against Lindy with Farmingdale and Baldwin, and two ties of 0-0 with Amityville and Mempham.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1952 Football season under Coach Duke Greenwich is one which most persons in Lindenhurst would like to forget. The opening game brought the bulldogs facing the county favorites, Huntington. This game was the beginning of a long dismal season. In the final quarter of the game, the second team led by the passing of Adam Gadzinsky and the running of Don Clark and Eugene McGrellis got to the two yard line only to have a penalty called on them and Lindenhurst never threatened the goal line again.

Not until the last game of the season did the "Bulldogs" show their offensive power when they pushed across two touchdowns and an extra point to subdue Sayville 13 to 0. Outstanding for the Bulldogs this year were John Shiffert, George Price, Art Hibbert, Dave Kelsky and Eugene McGrellis.

WRESTLING

This year marked the third year of wrestling in L.H.S. The "Lindy" matmen in these three short years have built themselves a team that is respected by all coaches and wrestlers on Long Island. When Coach "Joe" Marcino first organized a wrestling team in this school the students, as well as the adults, said that it would not stick as a major sport in this school. But, thanks to Coach "Joe" Marcino, Lindy has come so far in this sport it is now a major wrestling power on Long Island.

The big winners this year were "Don" Clark and "Joe" Quigley who had a non-lost and tied record of 19-0-0-, 19-0-2 respectively. Both Don and Joe won the Eastern Long Island championships and the Long Island championships. Next in line were Frank Bertino and "Chuck" Cassano who were runners-up in the Eastern Long Islands with 7 defeats, ranked third in the Eastern Long Islands with 26 points, and 4th in the Long Islands with 17 points. This year's squad loses veterans Donald Clark, Chuck Cassano, Herman Osswald, Gene McGrellis, Hans Morgenstern, George Price, Bob Wright, and John Shiffert.

This wrestling squad owes a great deal to the fine coaching of Joe Marcino and Joe Victor as well as the managing by Bob Lyon.

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

Spurred on by coach Robert Mohr, the '52 Cross-Country Team climaxed a moderately successful season by placing sixth in the annual Suffolk County Meet held at Port Jefferson. Led by Everette Bunn and Captain Howard Rutherig, the vastly improved Lindy harriers squeezed out a three point victory over Patchogue while romping over Amityville and Babylon. During the regular season, Lindy's harriers placed second in two of four league meets and scoring a double win over LaSalle in a pair of non-league home meets.

The team's two best point getters were Rutherig and Bunn, who shared first place honors through the season. The team's third place usually fell to Paul Adler, though he was beaten twice by Gene Gelke, who in turn was pushed to third place by Frank Bertino on three occasions. Sixth and seventh places were held down by Larry Klumas and Bill Diana, respectively — except for one occasion when both boys showed Bertino how it felt to come in seventh. The team was rounded out by Bob Lyon, Hank Altenbrand, and Lou Capuano, each of whom should be commended for the improvement they demonstrated during the season.

In all it was the best season the Lindy harriers have had since the sport's inauguration three years ago. As for the future, with the repeated able assistance of Mr. Mohr, and a strong promise of new recruits, we know that next year will be even better.

TRACK TEAM

The Lindenhurst track team is looking forward to an average season due to the loss of many veterans. They again will be coached by Joe Marcino and Robert Mohr, the team will be headed by John Shiffert and Dave Kelskey, two seasoned veterans, who should be Lindenhurst's main scores. Other members expected to come through with important points are Arthur Hibbert, mile; Ray Ortler, broad jump; Bill Mahler in the 440. The team will be managed this year by George Callahan.

BOWLING TEAM

This year marked the first year that Bowling was held on a varsity level under the capable direction of Mr. Robert Mohr. The bowling team had two meets with Bay Shore home and away, in which they split winning one and losing one.

Walter Schneider was usually high man for the High School Keglers followed by Carley Miller. Other members of the team are Robert Blennau, John Dirskand, Edward Morlock.

SPORTS NIGHT

After many days and nights of hard practice under the direction of Mrs. Elayne Sklar and Miss Eilleen Larken, the 9th annual girls sports night was held in the High School Gym on March 27-28.

The theme of the Sports Night was the "Top Ten" in which the members of the Green and White teams combined their efforts in song and dance routines.

The White Team with Evelyn White as Captain and Maureen Bak as Co-Captain chose Gay Paree as their theme and their marching costumes consisted of red vests and berets and carried canes.

The Green Team chose as their theme "Never Land" and with Beatrice Lord as Captain and Anne Swanson as Co-captain. They were dressed in green Peter Pan hats and carried green flags.

The two teams competed in such relays as The Jump Wand Relay and the Basketball Relay, and such games as Basketball, King Pin Baseball and Heman Croquet, at the end of the second night the score was totaled up and the winner was the White Team, the score 128 to 14.

BASEBALL TEAM

This year the baseball team under the coaching of Mr. Kienle is looking forward to a prosperous season. This season will be the first season for the Bulldogs in the A-1 Division. The team this year has many returning veterans, who should provide the punch needed for a championship team. One of the most important returnees is Bill Schneider, who will be the "Bulldogs" No. 1 pitcher. He will be ably assisted by Ed. Sheen. Other important veterans returning this year are: Bob Blennau, shortstop; Jim Price, second base; Art. Lorrelli, outfield, and Joe Fraumeni, first base. To date the Bulldog record is one win and one tie. The tie was with South Huntington in the season opener and the win over Farmingdale in the second game of the season.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

While the Varsity wasn't enjoying such a good season the "Frosh" Football Team was enjoying an undefeated season. The Freshmen, coached by Mr. Cotton and Mr. Gunthorpe, went through eight games without a loss and won the "Mythical" Frosh Football Championship. The leading scorers were Wally Lanham, Sam Lanham, Rich Hemendinger. Outstanding on the line were John Migliore, George Riedner and Tony Cimino.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING

This was the first year that a Freshman Wrestling Team competed in dual meets against other schools, and had a chance to compete in Junior Varsity Meets. Under the direction of Mr. Cotton they were taught the fundamentals of wrestling. These boys in future years should supply material for the varsity wrestling team. Some standouts were Wallace Lanham, William Spano, George Reidner, and John Migliore.

YEARBOOK NAME CONTEST

This year the yearbook staff decided to solve the old problem of naming the year book. A contest was held and Mr. Langford was declared the winner for his entry the "Bulldog" selected by the judges as the best name fitting to a year book. Also runner up laurels go to Mr. Marcino for his entry the "Pioneer".

Lois Luken
Co-Editor

At the start of our Senior year, we the class of 1953 elected George Price as the editor of our year book and Lois Luken Co-editor. George and Lois picked their staff as follows: Marilyn Weidner was chosen as Business Manager; Arnold Schotsky Managing Editor; Floyd Chivvis Advertising Manager; Bea Lord, Girls' Sports; George Callahan Boys' Sports; Edmond Ortler Photography Editor and Carol Leonard, Art Editor. Others on the staff were Harriet Brust, assistant Photography Editor; Roberta Blankenhorn assistant editor of Girls' Sports, Edward Miller, assistant editor of Boys' Sports, Bob Blennau and James Hesser helped with the art work, Madaleine Spencer and Dolores Silvani were in charge of subscriptions. The Literary Staff was made up of Laurel Gregory, Helen Hemendinger and Ann Genelli, Helen Schliestedt and Anne Swanson wrote the Senior activities. The typing was done by Joan Milligan, Maureen Bak and Catherine Kurdt.

As time progressed our senior class sponsored a contest to decide on a name for the 1953 yearbook. The judges chose the name "Bulldog" and our ambitious staff settled down to work on the theme which unveils our past four years as students in Lindy High. They chose a suitable cover, edited the contents, and here is the result of the many hours the staff spent writing—the 1953 Bulldog.

SENIOR PLAY

Feb. 13 and 14th the Senior Class presented "Henrietta the Eighth," a comedy written by Kurtz Gorden. The play was directed by Jacqueline Meier.

As the curtain opens Wilma Sutton played by Lois Luken and her sister Carol, Marie DeMartino, are sitting in the living room talking about their mother's new secretary. When Ding and Dong, Dizzy, and Baggy Pants Baldwin played by George Barasch, William Dwyer, Rocco Cassano, and Serge Azzolini respectively, bring the entire coke set with them for a jam session.

The coke set consists of Rosemarie Gilmore, Diane Rutherig, Doris Santos, Helen Hemendinger, Robert Blennau, Gil Stein, Floyd Chivvis, Howard Rutherig, and Walter Kapps. When the kids leave, the house looks like a tornado hit it.

We hear a knock at the door and Annabelle Mason (Joan Pfaff) arrives with Jimmy Howard (David Kelskey). Annabelle has brought Jimmy to meet Adele Sutton played by Evelyn White. Annabelle has a motive for bringing Jimmy to meet Adele. She wants Jimmy to take Adele to a hot spot in the town called the "Rodeo Roadhouse," which will be raided on the night Jimmy takes Adele there. This would ruin Mrs. Sutton's chance of being elected to the parole board. Mrs. Sutton is played by Marilyn Weidner.

Palma DiPietro, as Maggie the maid, enters the living room and upon seeing the mess decides to quit. Just as she is leaving Henrietta Carver and her fiance Ray Taylor arrives. Marilyn Benstock plays the part of Henrietta, the lead in the play. Ray is played by Arnold Schotsky.

Lizzy the next maid to come to the Sutton residence was played by Anna Genelli who continually complained of being frightened by the family. After working for the family for two weeks she quits. The last maid to come to the Sutton residence is Martha (Joan Milligan). She gets along fine with the girls because she shows them a way to win a man.

The Senior class would like to extend their sincerest thanks to the Service Club, under the direction of Mr. Saffrin, Mr. Mungo and the High School Band. We would also like to thank all the members of the Faculty that helped make our play a success. Last but not least we would like to thank our directors Miss Breton and Miss Meier.

MANHATTAN LIMITED

In November, in order to raise more money for our treasury, we presented a musical comedy, "Manhattan Limited." John Kelly, a senior, wrote and directed the play, which was adapted from one given in the school he formerly attended.

The theme of the play was a bus-tour around Manhattan. Benny Zalman, as the bus driver, announced to the "Tourists" the highlights of the tour.

The first stop was the Bowery. There, in "Sammy's Bowery Follies" we saw on stage a French show. Rita Farranto, Connie Laterra, Evelyn White, Harriet Brush, Helen Hemendinger, Ann Genelli, and Lois Luken danced the "Can-Can Polka." Dave Kelskey dances a solo as "Madamemoiselle Marie." Sammy the proprietor was played by John Ryan.

The next stop on the schedule was Greenwich Village. We peeked into an artist's studio and saw artists Herman Osswald and Rocco Cassano busy painting pictures of model Dolores Hendrickson. When they left we watched an amazing event. A portrait became alive as Marilyn Benstock danced to "An American in Paris."

We continued our tour to the New York Palace. There the entertainment included Marie DeMartino who sang "Lullaby of Broadway." Next on the program was Palma DiPietro who sang "I Went to Your Wedding" accompanied by Serge Azzoline on the guitar. Then Grace Grabher sang "The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady." Next to put us in a mellow mood those Hawaiian lovelies Bill Lutz, Artie Hibbert, Gil Stein, George Barasch, and Richard Jost danced the "Hula Hop" followed by Dorothy DeAngelis who sang "Blue Hawaii" accompanied by Roger Cellan, Herman Osswald and John Albert playing in their band. Then we heard a song written by Harriet Brush and Marie DeMartino and sung by Marie. That was all for the Palace.

Our next stop was the "Birdland Cafe" in Harlem. As we went in the band was playing a medley of tunes while John Kelly and Joyce Alesci did a real hot Lindy. Things quieted down a bit and Palma DiPietro sang "Two to Tango."

We re-entered the bus and went a calmer place—Central Park. There all the couples were promenading along the walks. Over in one section Seaman Recruit Serge Azzolini was trying to coax his girl Harriet Brush by singing "Ww Come On." There was the cop Dave Roggie evicting a drunk, Rocco Cassano while on another bench Marie DeMartino was singing "The Boy Next Door."

As a finale to the show Marilyn Benstock sang "Can't Help Lovin' That Man," John Kelly and Joyce Alesci danced an Apache dance to "Slaughter on Fifth Avenue" and the entire cast sang "Manhattan."

The show had a repeat performance later in the year for the benefit of the Polio Fund.

The choreography for "Manhattan Limited" was done by Joyce Alesci, the costumes were made by Mrs. Kelly and the musical arrangements by Roger Cellan.

JUNIOR PROM

On Saturday, May 10, 1952, the class of 1953 had their Junior Prom. The theme of which was Colonial Gardens. The gym was decorated in blue and white. The couples passed through a trellis of roses. The tables were situated around the gym and there was an old fashioned wishing well in the center of the floor.

The music was supplied by Otto Kosta and his band. After the grand March the King and Queen were chosen. They were Carol Mergler and Artie Lorelli.

MILK STAFF

We would like to express our gratitude to Rosemarie Gilmore, chairman of the milk staff, and also her helpers for making the selling of milk such a great success during our Senior year. The help consisted of Rosmarie Gilmore, Diane Rutherig, Doris Santos, Jimmy Price, George Price, Jimmy Hesser, Grace Grabher, Helen Schliestedt, Jimmy Corona, Joan Pfaff, Joe Fraumeni, Delores Karika, Marilyn Weidner and Artie Hibbert.
