I share with you a sense of pride and accomplishment and congratulate each of the members of the graduating class of 1985. I hope that each of you realize the support of your faculty, friends and family in realizing your present accomplishment. On behalf of the staff at the Lindenhurst High School, I wish each of you future success in the realization of your goals and in the pursuit of your vocations and careers.

Good Luck and God Bless,

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the underwood.

Though as for me
I had worn them both
And was one little step ahead
And both ways looked so right.

And置换 another
Just as fair in that island.

ROAST WILD DUCK

2 wild mallard ducks
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons pepper
2 teaspoons rosemary leaves
1 medium amount cut into eighths
1 apple cut into eighths
2 stalks celery, cut up
1 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon rosemary leaves

Heat oven to 250°. Clean ducks, wash inside and outside. Stuff together. Salt, pepper and sprinkle in cavity and in attached neck duck. Baste ducks and roast. Ducks are done when meat is pricked and meat is no longer pink when cut between leg and body. Remove ducks from pan. Baste ducks. Place in oven to keep warm.

Omit basting mixture of pepper and rosemary leaves. Place stuffed duck side up on rack in roasting pan. Pour orange juice over ducks. Cover, bake 1% hours or until done. Uncover, bake 20 minutes.
