THE CLASS OF '90
WILL NEVER FADE AWAY
I'm really not crazy!

What a stud!

Look Mom!

It's been since 1980 that I came unto the Haven... A field trip was created and Lefties was the maven. With each succeeding year the Lefties were quite a crew... Some years we had 30 and others, 22.

The program changed quite often, yet still it stayed the same... Classes in the forest, the beach for a volleyball game. One year we had spitiabas, or a room covered with "TP... HVD's hanging from the flagpole, lingerie worn by Mr. P.

When the plants were I'D one girl drew a thistle... but it couldn't compare to a salmine and a whistle.

Rising in the morning we all could see the sun... if we were real quiet we could see the deer run.

Morning calisthenics really made our juices flow... Although there was some moaning, none would miss the show.

Mush mush every breakfast cookies every snack... If we saw any more red sauce we'd never make it back.

We learned about Sylvia and transect on the beach... We heard about the Ice Age from Supermen who teach.

We drew shells and sculpted showed off our art work... Pouring plaster spelled disaster drove us all berserk.

Some Lefties went sailing some saw a falcon and sw... Everyone entered Sportsnight the losers threw in the towel.

JUNE 9, 1989
AS THE HOMECOMING YEARS FADE AWAY
OCT. 18, 1986
OCT. 17, 1987
OCT. 8, 1988
For four long years I've washed this "suit" and goodness, what a chore!
The grass, the blood and dirt, the stains and grime galore.
I've held it very gingerly, then dropped it in the wash
While thinking, "Next week, wash again, o gee, o lord, o gosh!"
I've opened all the windows as I've squirted on the "Shout";
I've breathed the fumes that clogged my lungs, of that I have no doubt.
The fortune on detergent, the time I've spent -- I shudder;
For four long years I've washed this "suit"; you now can call me "Mudder."

But today I washed this uniform perhaps the final time;
After all those years of drudgery, I failed to see the grime.
I saw the boy who wore it with such pride and dignity,
And suddenly, that football "suit" looked beautiful to me.

I saw the dedication of my young man to the team;
His pride to wear the uniform, to play the game and dream.

I felt the tingling of the game, the tumult at the end,
The heart, the spunk, the cheer and pat of every loyal friend.
The character and goodness that this uniform helped to grow,
And the precious boy who wore it is so special I can glow.

If I had one wish for certain, the one I would adore --
Would be to wash this uniform for four long years or more!

CAN YOU FIND YOUR FAVORITE TEACHER?

Assistant Superintendent — MEL RUBISTEIN

Assistant to the Superintendent for Secondary Education — BOB KERSH. Picture not available.

Assistant to the Superintendent for Personnel — EDWARD MURPHY

Administrative Assistant for Business Affairs — CHARLES SCHLESINGEE

Superintendent of Schools — ANTHONY J. PECORALE
TO THE CLASS OF 1990:

Your graduation from Lindenhurst Senior High School represents a “passing through.” Your four years of high school were years of structure and direction. As you leave us you enter an unstructured world and you now must find your own direction. You are moving from a period of security to a period of confusion. However, I am greatly impressed with your academic accomplishments, the level of your involvement in the school community, and the sophistication by which you address the world. The education that we have provided you here has been sound if we have taught you how to learn. Through learning you become a better person; a person who understands that part of being brave is to fear. Learning shows us that the purpose of life is to do something that makes a difference. You are excellent models of the product that develops as a result of good families, a community supportive of education, dedicated teachers, and a truly outstanding school that will continue to meet the needs of all students.

As you move on, we, of course, wish you the best that life has to offer. From our association, I have learned many things from you and consider myself fortunate to have known each of you. Thank you for all you have contributed to Lindenhurst High School. Go out into the world and continue to give to yourself so that you can give to others. God bless each of you.

This is Dedicated to One of Our Favorite Faculty Members That Will Never Fade Away

Through the Years Your Guidance and Friendship Will Be Cherished
Some memories never fade away just as some memories of people never fade. One very special individual stands out in our hearts when we think of our high school years. He has not only been an inspiration to all who have known him and will know him, but he has been a father figure, a coach and a friend.

He has brought new meaning to the word history. It is no longer a chronological record of events, but it is the life and development of people. Through his wisdom and personal dedication he is the true meaning of a teacher.

The dedication of our senior yearbook is only a small way in which our class can show this beautiful human being that the past four years are now part of history. As this drama becomes a historical event, we want to show our love to you in the best way we know how. It is with great pleasure the Class of 1990 dedicates this yearbook to the one and only Mr. Peter Costa.

Sincerely,

Class of 1990

CHRISTMAS HALLWAY DECORATING
As we begin the school year the faculty and students come together to form teams, clubs and activities. Announcements are made, new members join, plans are formulated, and friends are discovered.

The spirit of Lindenhurst is seen through the green and gold uniforms which grab our attention at half time... Cheerleaders and spectators shiver through a tie game, shouting well-rehearsed cheers... a single voice bringing black notes on white paper to life... Piles of pictures filling the pages of the Bulldog... fingers twitching on the keys of a trumpet in solo competition... hours of rehearsal for Thespians and Charles Street Players... setting up Art displays, hanging with pride the image you captured on paper... hard work and imagination is decorating the cafeteria for the special occasions... the international spice of the Spanish, Italian, German and French clubs... the elegance of the Junior and Senior Prom... the many hours of hard work spent pomping and primping of the unforgettable floats... the Halloween Parade... Pumpkin Painting Contest... the tinsel and garland of the Christmas hallways... we will always reflect on the LEFT Trip... and other class related trips... the heated class competitions... the many community services... Middle States Dinner... the endless Banquets... the senior breakfast... the graduation rehearsals... the hundreds and hundreds of photographs to be chosen and cropped so that 1990 could be collected in the Bulldog, and our never-ending deadlines.

We were individuals who worked as a team... we learned to accept and not to judge each other... we taught and we learned... we shared and we gave... we grew and we knew — together, we were something special.

FUNERAL

i remember
Grandma crying
While i sat there paralyzed vague faces of people i didn't know or couldn't remember their hugs
offered no comfort
no peace
and me
looking at the box
and i feel sad
Daddy, i love you
- wherever you are

Melissa Burgio
A yearbook is filled with many memories that will "NEVER FADE AWAY." A year of sweating through deadlines, alterations and hard-work. It can never be executed by 1 person or even a small group of people and when we combined the ideas and efforts of a variety of contributors the inspiration often changed the results. This was the aim of the Bulldog '90.

Having spent this last year as editor of the yearbook has shown me that responsibility is not just a word; it is meeting deadlines, working late hours and overcoming many obstacles. But the things we've experienced and the memories we've made will "NEVER FADE AWAY." The staff and advisors have made this year very special.

For all the laughs we have laughed and the tears we have cried, I would never trade the experience for anything.

Thanks,
I LOVE YOU GUYS!

Of all the prerequisites necessary to become a member of the National Honor Society probably the most difficult to attain is scholarship. Formerly an eighty-five cumulative average had to be maintained in order to be inducted; however, this is no longer the case. The 1989 Executive Board decided to raise the required average to ninety percent. The intentions of this change was to make membership of the society more prestigious. The ability to balance scholarship with athletics, community service, and employment has been developed by the people honored tonight.

I pledge myself to uphold
The high purposes of the National Honor Society
To which I have been selected:
I will be true to the principles for which it stands;
I will be loyal to my school;
And will maintain and encourage
High standards of scholarship, service, leadership and character.

All of the probationary members before us, have many common qualities (scholarship, citizenship, and leadership) which separate them from the other students in our community, however each individual has certain traits which separate one another from these special attributes derives their character. It gives them their individuality. Character can be seen as the force within them which distinguishes right from wrong. In a society filled with so many pressures on teenagers, it is hard to remain true to character. The student of exemplary character consistently practices desirable qualities of behavior, upholds principles of nobility and ethics, and demonstrates the highest standards of honesty and reliability showing the greatest courtesy, concern, and respect for others. So they have proven in the past and I guarantee we will prove in the future, these soon to be National Honor Society members uphold the highest ideals of character.

The Boys Basketball Team had a 7-5 league record for the 89-90 season and qualified for the playoffs. The first time in ten years that THE BOYS TEAM HAS MADE IT INTO THE PLAYOFFS. Leading the team this year were tri-captains Brian Woods, Paul Feeny, and Tom Sweeney. Brian is the point guard who provides stability on the floor that leads to any success the team enjoys. Paul is the stopper who shuts down the other teams Hi-scores and still finds the time to score 15 points a game. Tom is the quiet killer who at the end of the game who has gotten 20 to 25 pts., 8 or 9 rebounds and plays against bigger people while doing this. Also big contributions come from Mike Considine for his great attitude and open court out of control good for the team moves to the basket. Kevin Considine for his emotional lift he gives the team and tough defense. John Gleason for his 3 pt. shooting ability, he was among the league leaders in this department. Charlie Doherty for his important minutes he gave the team when they needed somebody to accept a particular role, and he did that for the team. Brian Doyle for having the ultimate team attitude in his own game, an attitude that spreads throughout the team. Brian also provided the needed help under the boards that allowed us to compete with bigger teams. Dan Lynch added 3 pt. shooting and athletic ability which was needed especially against certain teams the Bulldogs had to compete against. Joe Push for patiently waiting for his chance and when he got in always did a good job to help his team in the situations he was called upon. And finally you don’t have a chance for success unless you have everyone constantly pulling for each other and encouraging each other and the Bulldogs were fortunate to have 3 players who always provided this even though they didn’t play a lot, they always had great attitudes — these players were Rondi Arnold, Justin Mresserski, and Dan Hepburn.

SALVATORE GRECO

A world of color
A world of mystery
A world of amazement

Life
Given to us, the gift of memory.
Memories of your kindness,
friendship and warmth. Yourself.
Forever our hearts grow warm in memory of you. Thank you.
Forever
Forever in our memories
Forever in our hearts
A true inspiration
A dear friend
And lasting warmth forever.

My Best Friend
Dedicated to: Michelle Ann LaRotonda
The one who hears my thoughts and understands my thinking
The one who senses first when attitudes are sinking.

You and I confide and share
the secrets of the soul know when a friend should help or gently yield control.

You are where the heart finds comfort.
When the mind is free
You’re more than just a friend
You’re more than company.

You are where the spirit rests
Where tensions disappear.

You are where I find myself
When life is hard your near.
Happy Graduation, Michelle

I Love You!

A FRIEND
These Are The Times to Remember

This is the time to remember cause it will not last forever these are the days to hold on to cause we won't although we'll want to This is the time but time is gonna change.

Even though times are going to change may we always cherish the memories and the unique friendship we've shared.
