WHO ARE THE BOARD MEMBERS?

They are unpaid officials elected by the taxpayers to take the formal legal actions and assume the major responsibility for the conduct of schools. These people all work at making a living or work in their homes - just as you do. Therefore the Board President must delegate certain responsibilities to the Superintendent of Schools and will ask him to make reports to the Board of Education. This is necessary and proper procedure.
To the Class of 1993:

In extending my sincere congratulations to the graduating class of 1993, I regret only that we must part so soon. Unlike you, I am completing my freshman year at Lindenhurst High School, but during this year I have met and closely worked with you on so many occasions. Your High School years have been marked by great and memorable moments. In many ways these years have been the staging ground for the great issues in your future.

I am certain that the class of '93 will provide the future with its fair share of professional, business and civic leaders. It is entirely possible that among the graduates whose photographs are featured on this year's pages of Bulldogs 1993 are the young men and women who will develop cures for dreaded diseases, take the lead in solving the internal problems of our nation and help create the magic formula to end war and the threat of war for all time.

Your graduation is not a conclusion, but a significant beginning. We will hear from your class - through your work, through your service to the community, and through your continued efforts to learn, and to respect what Lindenhurst High School stands for. Your teachers, counselors, administrators, parents and friends have all contributed to what you have become - namely, a graduate of Lindenhurst High School. Consider all that you have achieved thus far and pursue your future goals with the same success you have demonstrated here at LHS.

As you leave, I hope that your High School experience has provided -- along with factual knowledge -- a realization that duties exist side by side with rights, that decency and respect are not old fashioned concepts and that dignity is something that belongs to all mankind.

Congratulations and my best wishes for your continued success.

For a man who is wonderful example of what more men should be. For the person whose devotion to his family, friends and school is marked by gentle strength & guidance. And whose love of life, sense of direction, and down to earth wisdom is seen at home, school, and on the football field. We want you to know that you mean so much to us than words could ever describe. We thank you and love you with all of our hearts. If only you knew how much we respect and admire you then just know That we think you're the best father any family ever had. We love you!

-Your children
As we start a new decade, we look ahead to many sacrifices, promises of prosperity and change. One thing that will not change is this man's faith in our futures. He is a loving father and husband; defining the true meaning of family values. A heightened awareness of this man's being came from a life threatening illness. Through the support of friends, colleagues, students, athletes and family this truly gifted man will once again bring his unique wisdom of teaching into the classroom, our hearts, souls and spirits.

In honor of this Social Studies teacher- it is our pleasure to dedicate the 1993 yearbook to an outstanding teacher, coach and friend: Mr. Edward Hayes.

With love & admiration,

The 1993 Yearbook Staff

To know is to know that to know is not to know.
May we always teach our children with books?
Let them look at the mountains and the stars up above.
Let them look at the beauty of the waters and the trees and the flowers on earth.
They will then begin to think and to think is the beginning of a real education.

And then I think of you
It's funny how some little thing can bring back a happy memory and turn your thoughts to someone who means so much.
It might be the sound of faraway laughter, the fragrance of a backyard bouquet or a souvenir of a place visited, a time shared
Often some little thing will come along and make me think of you.
And when I do I always smile...

Like the wind which blows the summer breeze.
The sky, the clouds, the grass and trees.
There is a place where the sea can roar.
This is the place where small birds can soar.
Soar to the skies seeking a view.
A view of the world which will all seem so new.
New? In a sense it is still the same place.
But the world now wears a different face.
Things are different. The sky has changed.
My whole life is rearranged.
Yes, I believe a good change has come to be.
I've learned to take care of myself and to worry about me.
To move on, to make good, and to achieve my dreams.
Fulfilling my life is a greater accomplishment than it seems.

This year was an exciting one for the Girls Varsity Tennis team. With only 5 returning players and a move to an upper ability league, the season proved to be quite challenging.

As the team worked hard and struggled to gain some experience their intensity paid off with awesome wins against the 2nd and 3rd place teams in the league.

"It was also very exciting to watch first singles Kelly Eiring remain undefeated till the last match of the season," Coach Oislander adds, "I couldn't have been happier for Kelly. She worked so hard for it and it's a pleasure to watch hard work pay off for an athlete. As for the rest of the team, it was one of the nicest teams I've ever coached and I enjoyed each and every one of them."

Varsity Baseball competes in what is arguably the best league in Suffolk County. This year’s team is composed of ballplayers who play school, summer and fall baseball. They have played more games than any team in recent years.

Leading the Bulldogs is third year Varsity Starter Brian Conobbio. Brian was selected All League in ’91 and in ’92. Newsday listed Brian as one of the top 10 players in the county in their baseball preview.

Other senior players are: Gerard Raimondi, a .400 hitter as a junior, Power hitting first baseman/pitcher Brian Gleason, catcher Andy Terzella, who is a solid hitter, Mike Fischetti who runs down baseballs with the best them, pitcher Bob Welden and outfielder Billy Greishaber. Rich Corbino and Frank Vitale are up from JV to help varsity.

The baseball program and staff wishes our seniors success in the future. Hit homeruns in the game of life!

SAIDY: I leave you a footer. Whatever you wait to tell else. Thanks for always being there. Willy...

You are my mirror. And you all those moves we saw. Maybe. All our future. And a "what" at midnight. All the money we have. And your own gym. Two good ankles. A wiggly cat. I'll be back.

I will anxiously wait for all the quarters you're throwing. Love ya, Cheryl!

I'll dearly miss you and Mykael and not having any clothes, shoes, or money. Papa Gilly Mo! I love chicken tonight. Spanish rice and beans. And the corn. I love the way you choose. I deserve it. You have been one of my best friends. I knew I could always turn to you if I had to. Thanks, you are going to be a big part of my life. I think. But sometimes it comes. You'll realize how much practice you had keeping me in line. Patrick: I leave you a $60.00 check. Hopefully it won't bother you. I love ya, my friend.

I've told you things that absolutely nobody knows. I could trust you with anything. You were always there for me. I appreciate that. Things have changed a little now. But some things never will. I'm leaving! I know you're leaving for Boston and I honestly don't know what I'll do without you. I know that you and I will always live on the corner with Tumbleweed, Liverfart, Westerholt, Purrington, and Tuffy and the Chucks."

"I Miss You My Special Friend"
You're the bright twinkling star
When I look in the sky
You're the angel on my shoulder that helps me to get by you were a special friend to me without a doubt through thick and thin you were the first to reach out
Friends and Family, Young and Old
All knew you had a heart of gold
Your bubbly spirits, your spunky style
Made everyone around you giggle and smile
You were here for such a short time
But left me with memories of a lifetime
The fun and laughter that we shared together will stay in my heart and be treasured forever
